C. G. H.

Raise your voices C. G. H.
Shout till the rafters ring—
Yearly will our gatherings here,
Good fellowship and friendship bring.
Remember those nights on call?
Ward bells and D. K. trays
The gauze room of 'eternal dressings
A memory haunting all our days.
To the Heads, To the Meds,
The future and all it holds for us
One and all, hear the call.
To the duty that beckons each one.
The bell that rang at 6 a.m.
Carols we loved to sing.
Stand and drink a toast C. G. H.
Your training' school all honor bring.
Our guests we wish you happy days,
Good luck in your endeavor.
We toast you now—The Calgary General—
Past, present, future and forever.
